Applications for a CalRBS scholarship will be accepted until 15 June 2012 for courses offered in Weeks 1 & 2. The CalRBS Director will notify scholarship applicants about awards via email on 30 June 2012. Applications for courses offered in Week 3 will be accepted until 15 September 2012 and notified on 30 September 2012.

CalRBS scholarship applications may be submitted by mail (single-sided, please), fax, or email. Electronic documents should be sent as email attachments (PDFs are preferred; please, no TIFFs or JPGs). If you are in doubt about the appropriate electronic format, we encourage you to mail or fax your application. All materials (including recommendations) must be submitted (or post-marked) by the above deadline. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered. To compete for a CalRBS scholarship, please provide the following:

1. A completed copy of this supplement form. (Note: If you are applying for additional support from other sources and have not yet secured funding, please answer the questions based on the information you have at the time of the application deadline. Be sure to check only one box for each question. Use your personal statement to explain any complexities.
2. A current résumé or curriculum vitae (no longer than two pages).
3. A confidential letter of recommendation. This letter should be sent to CalRBS directly via any of the methods listed above. The person writing your recommendation should include the following sentence at the top of his or her letter: "This is a letter of recommendation for [your name], who is applying for a scholarship to California Rare Book School."
4. A personal statement (no longer than one page) in which you also:
 - a. Explain how you anticipate attending CalRBS will help you in developing your professional skills.
 - b. Explain why receiving this scholarship is necessary for you. If you are currently employed, please explain the likelihood of receiving institutional support for tuition, travel, housing, etc., or the circumstances that might preclude such support.
